

EUROPEAN POLICIES

TWO YEARS AFTER THE EU ACCESSION – RISKS AND CHALLENGES TO THE NEW MEMBER STATES

Project Objectives

The study aims at outlining the potential risks and positive practices for Bulgaria as a new EU member state on the basis of an analysis of the main challenges to the new member states during the first years after the EU accession.

Project Implementation Tools

Thematic fields:

- Economic Sphere;
- State of the Society;
- Justice and Home Affairs;
- Social Sphere;
- European Funds Absorption.

Study methodology under thematic fields:

- Establishing indicators and identifying the tendencies in the main subtopics of the study;
- Problem-oriented approach towards the selection of member states for analysis and assessment of their development before and after their EU accession;
- Relation to the Bulgarian context and risks to Bulgaria - early warning.

Project Status

Completed

Results

Economic sphere - full report

State of society - full report

Justice and home affairs - full report

Social sphere - full report

Absorption of community resources - full report

Experts and Partners

Economic Sphere

- Georgi Angelov
- Lachezar Bogdanov
- Kalin Hristov

State of the Society

- Rayna Karcheva

Justice and Home Affairs

- Ivanka Ivanova

Social Sphere

- Boyan Zahariev
- Neli Petrova
- Maria Harizanova

European Funds Absorption – measuring the impact on the infrastructure, economy and social sphere.

- Tomislav Donchev
- Dragomira Belcheva
- Petya Braynova
- Gergana Maneva
- Elitsa Markova

Funding

Open Society Institute – Sofia

Contact Person

Zvezda Vankova

z.vankova@osf.bg