

PUBLIC POLICIES

DEVELOPMENT OF METHODOLOGY FOR EVALUATION OF PUBLIC SERVICES, PROVIDED BY THE MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION

Project Objectives

Description of the existing system for separation of the services, provided by the state and by the municipalities. Evaluation of the methodology for formulating standards for authorizing of state services. Development of methodology for determination of the value of public services, provided by the municipal administrations.

Project Implementation Tools

- Description of the existing system for separation of the services, provided by the state and by the municipalities;
- Developed methodology for determination of the value of public services, provided by municipal administrations;
- Evaluation of the methodology for formulating a standard for authorizing of state services;
- Summarizing the universal elements of the methodology that may be used as a basis upon identifying the value of other public services.

Project Status

In progress.

Results

- Stimulation of efficient governance;
- Designing a tool for citizens' control of the expenses on local level and transparency of public funds' spending;
- Obtaining a balance between expenses and benefits for the society;
- Realistic budget planning, targeting quality and efficiency of the services for the citizens and for the business.

Experts

- Stanka Angelova
- Borislav Borissov
- Yuri Kuznetsov
- Ginka Chavdarova

Funding

Open Society Institute - Europe

Contact Person

Boyan Zahariev
bzahariev@osf.bg

Dessislava Sirakova
dsirakova@osg.bg